- What's included?

At Ontario Winter Camping we offer guests an all inclusive package. We've got the wood stove heating up your yurt when you arrive, we supply the firewood for your yurt, the sauna and the outdoor living room fire. We provide bedding for your yurt and towels for the sauna. All meals are included: Dinner, Breakfast & Lunch + Coffee served in your yurt in the morning before breakfast. Meals are served around a large harvest table in the farm house. We have snowshoes for guest's use.

- Can I bring wine and beer?

You can bring your favorite beverages, a great compliment to our savory meals and perfect for an evening spent socializing fire side.

- What are the meals like?

You'll be staying in rustic/ comfortable accommodations, spending time outdoors and enjoying a Bruce Peninsula experience. So we want you to savor the epicurean diversity of our local farm fare. Meals are wholesome & hearty, you'll be burning calories so don't worry about the diet, we offer guests rich meals, we use 100 lbs of butter every winter, guests enjoy second helpings... local bison, elk, fresh & smoked fish along with traditional winter farm products fill out our menus. Download our Atelier Cuisine PDF for menu details.

- What are your Vegan, Vegetarian & Gluten free offerings?

We didn't want to offer mediocre vegan/vegetarian fare so we trained with a vegan chef to create delicious fare that incorporates into our meals for every guest during your stay with meat dishes added on for the carnitopians at the harvest table.

- How cold is it in a yurt?

When it's minus 25 outside a yurt can be a comfy plus 20 inside.

- Can I bring my pet?

By all means, pet's welcome.

- When is check in... check out?

Check in is 4pm. Check out is 1pm.

No early arrivals! We've got to prepare the yurts, resupply firewood, change bedding and start preparing dinner. There will be other guests during your stay and all guests deserve are full attentive service, hence the strict 4 pm check in time. If you're running late, no problem we've served guests as late as dinner at 11pm & fired up the sauna for them!

- What are the yurts like?

We want to give guests an experiential vacation, something unique, not the same old ho hum glamping yurt... You will be sleeping on a deep bed of aromatic evergreen boughs, reminiscent of a vacation from yesteryear, like a wilderness adventure from the early 1900s. Thick comforters, cushions & pillows, a wood stove and battery lanterns. Yurts are discretely located down winding foot paths in the forest between escarpment boulders and sheltered by the trees.

- How big are the yurts?

We've got yurts for couples and yurts for families / groups, the family yurts sleep 5- 6 adults comfortably.

- What's an outdoor living room?

Our outdoor living rooms are roofed structures with benches & blankets and a central fire place open to the sky. A great place for night time socializing with other guests. There's a fire wood stack nearby and we can get the fire going any time you wish. We've also had guests request meals at the outdoor living rooms and we are only too happy to oblige - weather permitting.

- When can we use the sauna? The snowshoes?

The sauna takes an hour to heat up, just let us know and we'll get the sauna going any time... the snowshoes you can keep at your yurt during your stay, snowshoe any time, try a moon light snow shoe if your staying during a bright moon phase.

- What is the Sunday Excursion & Weekday Guided Trip?

Sundays we take guests on a trip to explore some of the beautiful spots on the U.N.E.S.C.O recognized Bruce Peninsula after breakfast. If you're staying on a 2 night weekday package we take you on an excursion on the second day. We go over destinations the night before during dinner.

- What is Ontario Winter Camping's cancellation policy?

After you book a date with a $100.00 deposit a $30.00 administration fee is deducted if you cancel more than 21 days before your booked arrival time. 20 days or less no refund on deposit but your deposit will be credited to a booking on another date over the next two years.

- Can we bring our snowmobile?

Arriving on snowmobile is fine, 2 snowmobile trails are less than 4 km. away, we've got a parking spot for snowmobiles but no access to our trails. Our trails are for snowshoes & skis.

- What wildlife will I see ?

Wildlife in the winter includes: coyotes, great horned owls, fishers, pine martins, otters and in late March salamanders crossing the snow! Most wild life avoids humans in the day light, you'll see tracks in the morning and hear the coyotes and owls at night.

- Do I need to bring any special equipment?

Bring warm comfortable clothing; a warm comfortable pair of boots, a parka, mitts are better than gloves, bring a device for photos, bring your favorite beverages for fireside & dinner, bring board games if you're so inclined we do have sets of playing cards + 2 sets of "cards against humanity" for guests use, if you're bringing your dog - remember the dog food plus bags for clean up, bring snacks if you like.

- When and where are meals served?

Coffee is served in your yurt in the morning between 8 & 9 am followed by breakfast at the harvest table in the farm house. Dinner is served around 6pm in the farm house and lunch is served at noon in the farmhouse or fireside if guests desire an outdoor lunch.

- What are the wash rooms like?

Composting toilets are located along the trails between the yurts in un heated toilet structures.

- We're a couple, do we share the sauna?

There are two saunas and you can use the sauna any time, so couples can have the sauna to themselves.

- I have never used a wood stove, are there instructions?

We have the wood stove heating up your yurt when you arrive and when we toboggan your luggage to your yurt we go over the operating of a wood stove with you plus there is an instruction card in your yurt. There is a jar of matches, newspaper, kindling & wood at your yurt.
